Seminar Report: Union Budget 2024-25

Date: 17th April 2024

Time: 12:40 PM

Venue: Hall No. 02

Organizer: Department of Economics

The Department of Economics organized a special seminar on the Union Budget for the fiscal year 2024-25. The seminar aimed to provide insights into the key features and implications of the budget for various sectors of the economy. The event witnessed the participation of students, faculty members, and experts in the field of economics.

Introduction of Budget: The seminar commenced with the introduction of the Union Budget by Shri M.B. Ullagaddi, a seasoned economist known for his expertise in fiscal policy analysis. Mr. Ullagaddi provided a comprehensive overview of the economic landscape and the government's priorities reflected in the budgetary allocations.

Key Highlights:

Fiscal Policy Direction: Mr. Ullagaddi highlighted the fiscal policy direction set forth by the government, emphasizing its focus on sustainable growth, social welfare, and infrastructural development.

Sectoral Allocations: The budgetary allocations for key sectors such as healthcare, education, infrastructure, and agriculture were analyzed, shedding light on the government's strategies to address sector-specific challenges.

Taxation Reforms: Insights were provided into the proposed taxation reforms, including changes in income tax slabs, corporate tax rates, and measures to promote tax compliance.

Investment Opportunities: The seminar delved into the investment opportunities arising from the budgetary provisions, particularly in sectors like renewable energy, digital infrastructure, and healthcare services.

Current Union Budget Analysis: Following the introduction, Smt. Kulsumbi, an esteemed economist known for her research in public finance, delivered an in-depth analysis of the current Union Budget. Smt. Kulsumbi scrutinized the budgetary allocations, revenue projections, and expenditure patterns, offering
