Report on World Population Day 2024

The World Population Day 2024 event was a significant initiative aimed at raising awareness about population issues and their impacts. The program was a joint effort by the NSS Cell, Scout & Guides, and the Departments of Economics and Sociology of Good News Welfare Society's Arts and Commerce First Grade College, Kalaghatgi. It was an IQAC initiative, reflecting the institution's commitment to quality education and social responsibility.

Prayer Song: The event commenced with a soulful prayer song by Miss Tanuja Harijan and her group, setting a serene and focused atmosphere for the gathering.

Welcome Speech: Prof. M.S. Muragodmath delivered the welcome speech, warmly greeting the dignitaries, faculty members, and students. He emphasized the importance of World Population Day and the need for collective efforts in addressing population-related challenges.

Resource Person: The keynote address was delivered by Dr. Lingaraj Angadi, a renowned expert in population studies. Dr. Angadi's insightful talk covered various aspects of population growth, its socio-economic impacts, and sustainable development strategies. His engaging presentation enlightened the audience on the critical need for population control measures and effective policies.

Presidential Address: Dr. M.D. Horakeri, presiding over the event, shared his valuable insights on the role of educational institutions in spreading awareness about population issues. He highlighted the initiatives taken by the college to promote understanding and action among students and the community.

Vote of Thanks: The event concluded with a vote of thanks by Preeti Kanavalli. She expressed gratitude to the speakers, organizers, and participants for making the event a success. She also acknowledged the efforts of the students and faculty members who contributed to the smooth conduct of the program.

Master of Ceremony: Shri. M.B. Ullagaddi efficiently conducted the event as the master of ceremony, ensuring a seamless flow of the program.

The World Population Day 2024 event was a resounding success, with active participation from students, faculty, and guests. The collaborative effort of various departments and cells of the college underscored the importance of interdisciplinary approaches in addressing global issues. The discussions and presentations during the event significantly enhanced the understanding of population dynamics among the attendees, inspiring them to contribute towards sustainable solutions.
